In order to improve our knowledge of enemy recommend positive emphasis, particularly when patrols in combat areas receive mission briefings an order on the following; A- The necessity of capturing prisoners, even wounded ones cannot be interrogated. We must insure by every way possible that every soldier in the field recognize the value of a POW. This is particularly true of local forces, guerrillas, and VCI personnel in the lowlands. (B) Requirement to search all enemy who are dead. The infrequency of cases in which enemy personnel, particularly LF, guerrillas, and VCI carry out execution, makes thorough execution of this requirement of this requirement is very important.
